

Types of processed personal data, purposes and legal bases on which the personal data is processed

Processed personal data	Purposes
Process personal data on the basis of entering into/complying with a contract
Name-surname, copy of ID card	The data will be disclosed to an airline company for a plane ticket booking
Name-surname, age	The data will be disclosed to a tour operator and a hotel to make a reservation for accommodation and transportation.
Name-surname, Muang Thai Smile Club membership number, age, foods you cannot eat	The data will be used to plan the trip, such as travel planning and room and food management
Process personal data on the basis of legitimate interests
Photos and videos of the participants during the activity	The data will be used as a public relations media for the Company's activities. The Company will publish the public relations media containing such photos and videos in all types of media, both online and offline.
All collected personal data	The data will be kept as a record of the Company's operations.

In this regard, you can study more details about the data storage and your rights from the Company's Privacy Policy via <https://www.muangthai.co.th/th/privacy-policy>.